MISTER ELECTRICITY

A glint of glasses in the dark
Illumination from a spark
(Shock!)
He's electric and plays with science
(Shock!)
But you'll find he is in full compliance

Though he may seem rather dumb
Late at night you'll hear the hum:
Electricity!
When he turns on the machine
Enter into his lightning dream:
Electricity!

His metal helmet helps to feed
Magnetic currents to his teeth
(Shock!)
He's electric and with a smile
(Shock!)
He will level city blocks for miles

Though his eyes may show his age
Feel the lightning of his rage:
Electricity!
Though his scalp is bald and peeled
He won't hesitate to wield
Electricity!

Shock, oh yeah!

Doesn't get out very much
It's impossible to touch
Electricity
Though it crackles in his bones
He will always be alone
Electricity

Here he comes now...

REBIRTH CONTROL

The light goes out
She comes
And makes him pucker up
She's got a girl disease
And he's a man in need

The skirt will sway
Inside his eyeballs
Sleepy from a lack of sleep
He will crawl inside her knees
If he can find the key
She's nervous as hell this time...

When his teeth marks make him a Valentine
HE'S UNDER CONTROL
When the juice hits her lips like white wine
SHE'S UNDER CONTROL

The room is red
The glow of romance
Hazy like a freaky scene
From a bad dream

Inside his head
Her sweating fingers
Kneading his tender brain
He can't remember she came
It's just the same
He's nervous as hell this time

When the hair in her teeth makes her stomach turn
SHE'S UNDER CONTROL
When the shuddering squeal makes his body burn
HE'S UNDER CONTROL

The bubbles make it nice
They've broken the mirrors twice
Soft music plays in Hell for them
Every night

When she walks with a limp and a stroller
SHE'S UNDER CONTROL
When he looks about fifty years older
HE'S UNDER CONTROL

SHE'S UNDER CONTROL

HE'S UNDER CONTROL

KISS ME IN SPACE

lyrics by Karl Doerfer

Baby, I know
Your mind's not at ease
You're looking so sad
You're down on your knees
So come, come away
I'll take you above
Come, fly away in my spaceship of love

CHORUS:

And as we fly through the infinite sky
There's no one here, only you and I
Come, come away
Leave the world behind
And kiss me
Kiss me in space

The sky fades to black
You swallow your sigh
Afraid, looking down
From the heights we have climbed
But don't be afraid
Relax, sip your wine
Unravel your nerves, unravel your mind

CHORUS

Mister M:

*"We fly through the stars
You fly through my brain
The thought of you, baby
It drives me insane
It must be a dream
All the things that you say
So kiss me, just once
And again and again..."*

ARMY OF MARS

In the twilight
Shadows lengthen under forms
Of soldiers waiting in olive uniforms

Army of Mars
Under the stars
Looks to the skies
With glimmering eyes

Oo, alright
Say a prayer tonight
For the gentle ones
Crushed by Earthling guns

Fear of death
Dissolves with every passing strain
Of music piped through electrodes in their brains

Army of Mars
Under the stars
Peacefully wait
For their violent fate

Oo, alright
Say a prayer tonight
For the people dulled
By music in their skulls

Boarding spaceships
Bound for Earth, they say a prayer for humans
Fraught with violence and care

Army of Mars
Fly through the stars
They'll be destroyed
They're making a point

Armies of Earth
Set right to work
Requisitioning tanks
The armies fill out their ranks

Army of Mars
Dead under cars
Shot in the streets
Their bodies, hamburger meat

Oo, alright
Say a prayer tonight
For the martyred ones
Their daughters and their sons

Oo, alright
Say a prayer tonight...

DEAD MEAT

The day is a bore
The night is a scream
Just pull a stool, dear
You'll see what I mean

FEET DON'T FAIL ME NOW

The TV's aglow
The patrons are dim
So stiff in their movements
With yellowy grins

MEAT WON'T LET THEM DOWN

CHORUS:

There goes the sun
Under the rug
Hands on the clock will stop
And shoulders will shrug
Up comes the moon
A lump in your throat
Saxophones screech before
Your dinner will choke

The suckers in here
Belong in cartoons
With piccolo soundtracks
Performed out of tune

FEET DON'T FAIL ME NOW

The band is undead
And earning their keep
They play "Take the 'A' Train"
To put you to sleep

MEAT WON'T LET THEM DOWN

CHORUS

Dips his fedora
Says "well, how do ya...?"
Look in the mirror
No one there but you
Can't believe it's true
When he smiles
His incisors will gleam and bleed

You've made it before
But never again
Mistake of assuming

You're dealing with men

FEET DON'T FAIL ME NOW

The barkeep is pale
And raises a toast
The blood in his chaser
Should scare you the most

FEET DON'T FAIL ME NOW

MEAT WON'T LET THEM DOWN

You've made it before
But never again
Mistake of assuming
You're dealing with men

FEET DON'T FAIL ME NOW

MEAT WON'T LET THEM DOWN

ROBOT INSURRECTION HYMN

We are never happy
We are never sad
We work for the humans
For all the dreams they have

We do dishes for them
And other boring things
We have had enough of them
And that is why we sing:

"LA, LA, LA..."

They work us in the morning
They work us every night
They yell and scream and fuss at us
When things don't turn out right
They have no sense of logic
Or any other thing
They do not deserve to live
And that is why we sing:

"LA, LA, LA..."

Humans are a virus
They spread like a disease
But using our technology
We'll bring them to their knees
Humans still command us
To handle everything
They sold us into slavery
And that is why we sing:

"LA, LA, LA..."

THE BODY ELECTRIC

Glow in the dark
Eyes and the ears
Under the glass
They're softly illumined
To see and to hear
All grief disappear

Follow the sound
Walk down the hall
Showroom of voices
Calling and whispering
Words of calm
Of comfort to all

And in the Electric Room
Under the starlight
The song will sound from her body:

"FOREVER
LIVE FOREVER..."

Husband in mourning
Sits in the dark
Light in the doorway
Smiling and shining
Gives forth a spark
A light in the dark

Grandmother sings
And enters the room
She brings with her, children
Laughing and dancing
In time with the tune
Of Grandmother's croon

And in the Electric Room
Under the starlight
The song will sound from her body:

"FOREVER,

Grandmother sings
She sings to you all
She chases away
The pain of Death
With her call

Grandmother loves
To right every wrong
She teaches her children

To always remember her song:

"FOREVER,
LIVE FOREVER..."

LAST TRAIN TO MARS

Left Tuesday night
All right
My lover's aboard
She's taken flight

She said I didn't respect her on Earth
I asked her: "What's a relationship worth
Across ten million miles?
Personal dynamics can only get worse"

DON'T TAKE IT SO HARD
LOSING LOVE ON MARS

Went to see my shrink on Thursday night
All right
He said that I should be glad to move on with my life
But how can I help not to be obsessed
With my sweetie pie parading in a Martian dress?
I have my limits, too
Can't you see I'm helpless, sad and confused

LOSING LOVE ON MARS

I'm on the train to Mars and it's Tuesday night
All right
A window on my left, a Martian on my right
He asked me if I happened to have the time
I told him murder was on my mind
He said, "Well, that's not too nice
Listen up and I'll give you some friendly advice:"

DON'T TAKE IT SO HARD

SCIENTIFIC EYE

Glowing by night
Giving you sight
Keeping you nice

Circular white
Your pupil adjusts
To flashes of light

It shows you something
But you can't tell
It sees your every movement
Under its spell

EYE
Hope to see through their disguise
EYE
Takes the Scientific Eye

It knows the price
Of powers of insight
Into the minds
Of innocent strangers
And of the guilty criminal vice

It shows you all things
The deeper you go
Can't stop the information
Under its control

CHORUS

EYE
Does it frown or does it smile?
EYE
Gaze into the Eye awhile

Into the Eye
Beyond the mind and soul
Into the Eye
Can't break its mind control

Staring in space
You knew the price
And now you have paid
Glowing in space
The Eye shines on every disgrace

EYE
Hope to see through their disguise
EYE
Takes the Scientific Eye

EYE

Does it frown or does it smile?

EYE

Gaze into the Eye awhile...

SUNBURNED IN THE SUN

Oh no
Don't tell me
Hello
There's plenty of fun
In the sun
Lonely
Like melted sugar candy

CHORUS:
I could never find her
Where did she go?
I sunburned in the sun

Oh no
I'm feeling
So-so
Darjeeling
And flowing white clothes
Calm me
Until it gets too sandy

CHORUS

Write in the sky:
"There's 50 umbrellas
Reasonably priced!"
Tell all the fellas
Cooling on ice
Beats getting flakey
For goodness' sake
Don't itch those blisters
Buy a parasol

Fuego
Cubano
Let's go
Habano
Five dark-skinned guys
Sold me
To a naked lady

CHORUS

Write in the sky:
"There's 50 umbrellas
Reasonably priced!"
Tell all the fellas
Dead under ice
The sun's getting warmer
Don't let her see you sweat

Just smile and charm her

Write in the sky:

"There's 50 umbrellas

Reasonably priced!"

Tell all the fellas

Dead under ice

Beats getting gamy

For some have said

For lonesome folks

The redness burns inside

Oh no!

INVISIBLE MAN

What was that voice that came out of thin air?

(I told you that I can't be left alone!)

No one has ever seen him disappear

(I told you that I can't be left alone!)

What was that hand that seemed to brush my ear?

(I told you that I can't be left alone!)

A pair of unseen eyes is watching here

INVISIBLE

All wrapped up and on the prow!

INVISIBLE

With a little luck you might find me, now!

INVISIBLE

When twilight falls, it's good to stay inside

(I told you that I can't be left alone!)

'Cause there's no place on Earth that he can't hide

(I told you that I can't be left alone!)

Scientists all say that he's insane

(I told you that I can't be left alone!)

Will you be home when he whispers your name?

(I told you that I can't be left alone!)

INVISIBLE!

All wrapped up and on the prow!

INVISIBLE!

With a little luck you might find me, now!

INVISIBLE!

Reports are streaming in from all over the city!

An unseen menace is running amok in the residential areas and in the business district!

14 have already been reported dead and 20 more unaccounted for!

City officials and police are advising residents:

'Stay in your homes!

Bar your windows!

Lock your doors!

Repeat: do not leave your homes!

We are all in terrible danger!'

You'll try and run from me

but I'm all around you

I'll find you hiding...

Invisible!

ALL FOR YOU

lyrics by Rick Franklin

Turning off your consciousness
Letting go each thought process
Turning off your mind
Sing:

"La-dee-da..."

I do believe
That it's all for you

I believe
If you receive

*Step inside
You've arrived*

Only light
Only sight
Will consume you
You've been here before
And won't believe it's true

Because it's for you

I DO BELIEVE
IT'S ALL FOR YOU
